IRVINGTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

The Irvington Grammar School was dedicated in 1922.

At the present time there are seven teachers, with the principal, employed in the Irvington Grammar School. We have an enrollment of about two hundred forty pupils.

The trustees of the school are: Raymond Benbow, Manuel Joseph and Henry Weston.

The janitor of the Irvington Grammar School is Mr. Rose. We feel that too much credit cannot be given Mr. Rose for the wonderful care he has given to the school grounds and to the school itself.

All the art work in this book was done by Henry Kato.

Seventh and Eighth Grade Presidents.

Above is a picture of president Philip Ramsell of the eighth grade handing the spade, following our tree planting, to Walter Rose the president of the seventh grade club.

This is the fourth year the spade has been handed down, and we hope that the class of 1932 will hand it down to the class of 1933.

The eighth grade wishes the seventh grade all the luck that can be had.

ORCHESTRA

This is the fourth year that we have had an organized orchestra.

This orchestra is composed of about twenty-six members, and is directed by Mr.Mc Cellan, our instructor in instrumental music.

On May 29, 1931 the members of the orchestra made their third appearance at the Washington Union High School in their annual Grammar School contest. There are two classes in the contest. Class A is composed of Alvarado,Irvington, Newark and Niles. In class B were Alviso, Mission San Jose and Warm Springs.

Irvington took first place, winning the cup for the second year in succession.

The members of the orchestra feels that all of their success was due to Mr. Mc Cellan and to Bernice Weber our student director.

Too much credit cannot be given to Bernice for her untiring effort to make our orchestra a success.

KITE CONTEST

The eighth grade were the sponsors of a kite contest, which was held on March 20, 1931.

It was a great success. Philip Ramsell was elected by the class as announcer, while Lillian Montarbo, Gladys Goularte, Henry Kato and Raymond Cunha were elected as judges.

There were thirty-one contestants in this contest.

Edwin Dargitz and his assistant Joseph George, won first prize for the kite that went the farthest. Takeo Hiraaboyashi took the second prize for flying his kite the highest. Vernon Leal won the third prize for having the largest kite while James Sinclair won the fourth prize for the best looking kite.

The girls were tied, so prizes were given to Adeline Souza and her assistant Adeline Harvey and to Margaret Trenouth and her assistant Dorothy Williams.

All were satisfied with the judges decisions, and were well pleased with the prizes given by the eighth grade.

CHRISTMAS OPERETTA

"The Captured Santa Claus", our Christmas operetta was presented by forty-three students on Dec.11,1930, before a large audience. It was a very successful presentation. It was held at the High School Auditorium.

The operetta was directed by Mrs. Foster, Miss Roderick, Miss Stivers and Miss Taylor.

Walter Rose took the part of Santa Claus, and carried the part very well. Other characters were the Christmas dolls;Teddy Bear; Jumping Jacks; A,B,C's; Candles; Brownie Police; Bells; Soldiers; and Socks. They all took their parts well.

Written by Masako Sakaki and Leotina Leal.

PET SHOW

A pet show was held by the third and fourth grades of the Irvington Grammar School under the direction of Miss Stivers and Miss Taylor on April I7th. in commemoration of "Be Kind to Animal Week" which was to be held from April I9th. to the 25th.

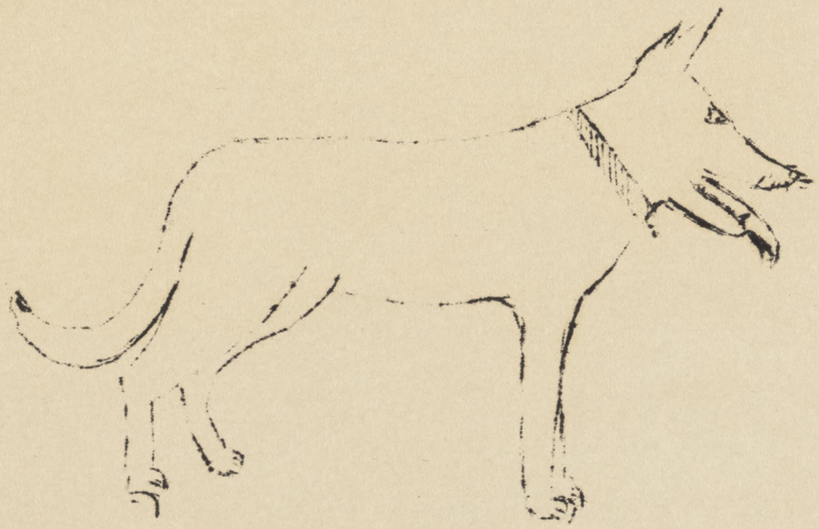
At one o'clock the pets were paraded by their owners around the quad where the entire school had assembled to watch the parade. They were then brought before the judges and were all awarded white ribbons for entrance. Following this the judges awarded a blue ribbon to Teddie, a collie, owned and exhibited by Ben Mozzetti, for the best dog in the parade. A gold ribbon was also awarded to Mickie, a fox terrier owned and exhibited by Dorothy Williams for the dog doing the most tricks. Red ribbons were awarded to John Ireland and Sumi Ohye for having given homes to stray dogs.

The ribbons were donated by Mrs. Tebault from the Latham Foundation for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, who watched the parade from among the audience.

The judges were selected from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. They were Evelyn Pond, Philip Ramsell, Walter Rose and Gene Slater, all of whom carried out their work as judges very successfully.

Dogs, rabbits, white rats, canaries,love birds, gold fish, pigeons,and chickens were exhibited.

This was the first pet show ever held in our school. We hope that better and larger shows will be held in the future.



June Operetta (Boys)

The Irvington Grammar School will hold two short operettas on June 9, 1931. They are "Lady Frances" and "Boy Bandits". The entire cast for "Boy Bandits" are boys while "Lady Frances" is composed of girls only.

There are twelve characters in Boy Bandits. Raymond Cunha takes the part of the leader of the bandits, while Edward Rose takes the part of the secretary. The part of Perceval is taken by Walter Rose, and Stuffen a darkey cook by Philip Ramsell, while the rest of the cast are guards.

We are being instructed by Mrs. Foster, Miss Roderick, and Miss Stivers.

We hope this operetta will be a success.

JUNE OPERETTA (Girls)

We believe our June operetta "Lady Frances" will be a big success. It will be held on the ninth of June. All of the cast are very capable of taking their parts.

Gladys Goularte is taking the leading part of Lady Frances, while Lorraine Houck takes the part of Bridget O'Harrigan. The rest of the cast takes the part of college girls.

We have been practicing under the direction of Mrs. Foster, Miss Stivers and Miss Roderick.

JOKES

Teacher: "Now, Johnny, what stirring speech did Paul Revere make when he finished his immortal ride?"
Johnny: "He said, Who'a."

Mr. Scales: Lillian, if coal were ten dollars a ton, and you ordered forty dollars worth, how much coal would be delivered?
Lillian: Three tons.
Mr. Scales: Why, Lillian, thats not right!
Lillian: I know it ain't, Mr. Scales, but most of them do it just the same.

Teacher: "How many days in a year, Mary ?"
Mary: "Seven."
Teacher: "Wrong; there are seven days in a week, but how many days in a year ?"
Mary: "Seven."
Teacher: "No! How many days in a year ?"
Mary: "Seven. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and if there are any more I've never heard of them."

Mrs. Hawes: Henry, which is the fartherest Australia; or the moon ?
Henry: Australia.
Mrs. Hawes: What makes you think so?
Henry: Because you can see the moon.

Son: Say, pa, the teacher asked me to find the greatest common divisor.
Father: Goodness! Is that thing still lost? The teacher had me hunting for it when I was a kid.

Edward: Does your old Ford always rattle like that?
Philip: No, only when she runs.

FAREWELL

Eight years ago a mighty band
Came forth to learn and understand,
To learn the right from wrong.
We, came to Irvington,so dear;
We came from far; we came from near;
Ready to answer her many calls.
Now the eight long years have passed,
The last lap of our race won at last.
And now we must say farewell.
Farewell to those we love so well,
Farewell to teachers, friends and all.
We hate to leave you 'tis true,
But what else is there to do?
At Irvington we've filled our place
And now we've completed the race.

To the advertiser we wish to say,
"Thank you," in every, every way
Our best wish, sincere and true
Is,"Much prosperity to you."
